

Tulsi Gabbard to join intel tsars at Delhi conference next week

SHUBHAJIT ROY NEW DELHI, MARCH 11

US DIRECTOR of National Intelligence Tulsi Gabbard is headed to India for the first high-level visit from the new administration under President Donald Trump, and she will be attending a major conference of intelligence chiefs in Delhi next week.

Besides Gabbard, intelligence chiefs from Quad countries Australia and Japan, and prominent G7 countries are also expected to attend the gathering of intelligence tsars. Some of them might also attend the Raisina Dialogue from March 17-19, which is organised by the Observer Research Foundation and the Ministry of External Affairs.

The conference usually takes place quietly on the sidelines of Raisina Dialogue, when some of these officials attend the think tank event. The intelligence chiefs will gather in India, and are to be hosted by National Security Advisor Ajit Doval and Chiefs of RAW (Research and Analysis Wing) and Intelligence Bureau among others.

Gabbard announced her visit to India on Monday. "I am #WheelsUp on a multi-nation trip to the Indo-Pacific, a region I know very well having grown up as a child of the Pacific. I'll be going to Japan, Thailand, and India, with a brief stop in France enroute back to DC," Gabbard said in a post on X, with a photograph of her boarding an aircraft.

"Building strong relationships, understanding, and open lines of communication are vital to achieving President Trump's objectives of peace, freedom and prosperity," she said.

Her first stop will be

US Director of National Intelligence Tulsi Gabbard

Honolulu where she will visit "IC partners and INDOPACOM" (US Indo-Pacific Command) leaders, and "our troops engaging in training".

This will be Gabbard's first trip to India after taking over as the eighth Senate-confirmed and first female combat veteran Director of National Intelligence (DNI) in the second Trump administration.

Last month, Gabbard had met Prime Minister Narendra

Hampi gang rape: Israeli woman goes home; police raid homestays

Bengaluru: Days after two women were gangraped near Hampi in Karnataka, one of the victims, an Israeli tourist went back home Monday. A police officer said the Israeli woman was in a deep state of shock, and she chose to travel back to her home country.

The police have said the Israeli national was among the two women who were allegedly raped by three construction workers, all of whom have been arrested, on the night of March 6. A tourist from Odisha was killed after the accused allegedly pushed the men into the Tungbhadra River canal in the Aneundi area of the Koppal district. They were part of a group of five tourists, including three men.

Monday and asked them to provide the necessary documents to run their business.

Ram L Arasiddi,

Superintendent of Police, Koppal, said, "We asked the homestay and guest house owners to install CCTV cameras and take other safety measures. We also asked them to fill up Form C of the foreign tourists and share it with the police."
