

PNB Housing Finance Limited Join Hands with the Indian Navy to Elevate Healthcare Infrastructure

- Supports the installation of a 64-Slice CT Scan Machine at Naval Station Health and Wellness Centre, expected to benefit 8,000 beneficiaries annually

New Delhi, 28 May 2026: PNB Housing Finance Limited announced its support towards the Indian Navy for delivering advanced healthcare facilities at the Naval Station Health and Wellness Centre, Swastika, located within INS India Campus in New Delhi. The Company installed a 64-Slice CT Scan Machine in the unit, underscoring its commitment to strengthening healthcare infrastructure and enabling access to quality medical care for the defence forces of the nation.

The facility was inaugurated by Admiral Dinesh Kumar Tripathi CNS, Mrs. Shashi Tripathi, President NWWA in the presence of Mr. Ajai Shukla MD & CEO PNB Housing Finance Limited and Ms Gita Nayyar, Chairperson, CSR Committee along with senior officials of the Indian Navy and PNB Housing Finance.

The Naval Station Health and Wellness Centre, Swastika serves as the primary healthcare centre for Naval Station Delhi and caters to nearly 5,000 serving naval personnel, 15,000 dependents, and 2,500 veterans and their dependents. The addition of advanced radiological imaging capabilities is expected to strengthen emergency response and diagnostic care, particularly in trauma, pediatric and neurological cases.

Ms. Gita Nayyar, Member – Board of Directors & Chairperson, CSR Committee of the Board, PNB Housing Finance Limited, said, “We are proud to partner with the Indian Navy to deliver critical healthcare infrastructure to the Naval Station Health and Wellness Centre – Swastika in New Delhi, and support thousands of serving personnel, veterans and their families. By enabling advanced diagnostic capabilities within the INS India campus, we aim to ensure that critical cases receive immediate attention. This initiative underscores our commitment to safeguarding the special forces of India who dedicate their lives to safeguarding the country’s maritime frontiers.”

Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Ajai Shukla, MD & CEO, PNB Housing Finance Limited, said, “Our partnership with the Indian Navy reflects our commitment to bringing cutting-edge healthcare solutions to those who serve the nation and its people with dedication and responsibility. By equipping the Swastika Naval Station Health and Wellness Centre with advanced healthcare infrastructure, we are enabling faster and more effective medical care for thousands of naval personnel and their families. This initiative is a step towards building resilient healthcare systems for those who safeguard India’s maritime frontiers.”

The 64-Slice CT Scan Machine will offer standard diagnostic imaging protocols covering head, chest, abdomen, bones, trauma and contrast-enhanced studies, helping improve timely diagnosis and treatment outcomes. The project is expected to benefit ~8,000 beneficiaries annually, supporting critical “golden hour” management in trauma and cerebrovascular accident cases.
