NEW DELHI : The Supreme Court on Wednesday directed all high courts to furnish detailed reports on the timelines of their judgments, including the dates when cases were reserved for verdict, when judgments were pronounced, and when they were uploaded on court websites, while stressing that such transparency would enhance judicial accountability and reduce uncertainty for litigants.

A bench of justices Surya Kant and Joymalya Bagchi said that once collated, this data must be placed in the public domain, so that the performance of each of the 25 high courts in delivering and publishing judgments can be tracked in a uniform and transparent manner.

The bench noted that while a uniform format for collecting information was still being developed, the exercise was already yielding positive results. It emphasised that the even-

GUJ COURT SENTENCES 3 TO LIFE FOR COW SLAUGHTER

AHMEDABAD: Calling it a testament to its commitment to cow protection, the Gujarat government on Wednesday lauded a session court's recent decision to sentence three men to life imprisonment for cow slaughter.

A government statement, released on Wednesday evening, said, "The ruling marks a significant milestone under the Gujarat Animal Preservation (Amendment) Act, 2017..."

The case unfolded following a police raid on November 6, 2023, in a residential area of Amreli, where authorities discovered evidence of illegal calf slaughter. Officers seized about 40 kilograms of meat, animal remains, including severed legs, knives, axes, a chopping block, weighing scales, waste, and a vehicle used in the operation, all pointing to an intent to profit from the prohibited act, the Amreli Sessions Court said on November 11.

Special public prosecutor CB Mehta argued the act insulted Hindu religious sentiments and aimed at economic gain through illegal meat trade, noting one of the accused prior conviction in a similar offence. Sessions judge Rizwana Bukhari, in an 81-page ruling, found the prosecution's case proven, relying on consistent witness accounts and forensic evidence, dismissing the defence's claims of fabricated evidence, emphasising the raid's legality and the deliberate nature of the crime.

The accused — Kasimbhai Hajibhai Solanki (20), Satarbhai Ismailbhai Solanki (52), and Akrambhai Hajibhai Solanki (30), faced charges for offences that allegedly insulted religious sentiments and violated state laws.

CANADIAN TRADE MINISTER ARRIVES ON A 3-DAY VISIT, BILATERAL TIES IN FOCUS

NEW DELHI/NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE: Canada's international trade minister Maninder Sidhu arrived in India on a three-day visit on Wednesday to hold talks to advance trade and investment linkages between the two sides, which are speedily rebuilding their relations following a diplomatic row two years ago.

Sidhu will promote Ottawa's commitment to support and grow commercial ties between Canada and India, including in artificial intelligence, clean technology and digital industries, and explore new opportunities for partnerships that benefit workers and businesses in both countries, the Canadian high commission said on Wednesday.

He will also travel to Visakhapatnam to attend the Confederation of Indian Industry's Partnership Summit, which will be hosted by Union commerce minister Piyush Goyal, on November 14.

"This visit to India will reinforce Canada's commitment to diversifying our trade relationships and attracting new investment. As one of the fastest-growing major economies, India offers significant opportunities for Canadian businesses and workers," Sidhu said in a statement released by Global Affairs Canada, the country's foreign ministry.

Two-way trade was worth $30.9 billion in 2024 and Sidhu said there is greater potential ahead. "By deepening cooperation in areas such as energy, clean technology, artificial intelligence, and agriculture, we can unlock new commercial opportunities, drive innovation, and build more resilient and secure supply chains that deliver shared prosperity for both our countries," he added.

Canada perceives India as a key partner as it strengthens economic links in the Indo-Pacific under a comprehensive strategy for the region, the high commission said.

Path to a gender-equal India lies in collaboration: CJI Gavai

NEW DELHI: Chief Justice of India (CJI) Bhushan R Gavai on Wednesday said that the path to a gender-equal India lies not in confrontation but in collaboration where men, particularly those in positions of power, recognise that sharing power with women is not an act of loss but liberation of society.

Delivering the Justice Sunanda Bhandare Memorial Lecture here, CJI Gavai said that achieving the path to gender justice requires dismantling the invisible social, cultural, and economic barriers that limit women's freedom and participation.

True equality, he said, demands that the benefits of law, education, and opportunity extend to each woman, not just in the metropolitan cities, but in every small town, village and marginalised community.

"Achieving gender justice is not the responsibility of women alone. It requires an active reimagining of power by men, especially those who occupy positions of authority in our institutions, workplaces and political systems," CJI said.

Separately, authorities confirmed that 35-year-old doctor Nabi and his alleged associate, Dr Muzammil Shakeel Ganaie, visited Turkey in 2022, and that the two men who accompanied Nabi in the Hyundai i20 car that stopped at a petrol pump in Sector 27 Faridabad for a PUC certificate on October 29 were allegedly Amir Rashid Mir, a Kashmir-based plumber, and Sonu, who worked at the second-hand car dealership from where the i20 was eventually purchased by Mir.

Sharing the vision of justice, Bhandare, a former Delhi high court judge, who was a vociferous proponent of gender justice and social equality, he said, "The path to a gender-equal India lies not in confrontation but in collaboration where men and women together rebuild the moral and institutional architecture of equality envisioned

by our Constitution.”

Real progress, he said, will come only when men recognise that "sharing power is not an act of loss, but of liberation of society" as he narrated the evolution of law in achieving gender justice through the past 75 years since the adoption of the Constitution.

This year was the 30th memorial lecture on the topic “Justice for All: Building a Gender Equal and Inclusive India”.

A senior Special Cell officer said, "Sonu works at a car dealership in Faridabad and was selling the car to Mir and Nabil who found the car through an ad online. Sonu is being questioned. We suspect the men bought the car to carry explosives kept in Ganaia's rented accommodation in Faridabad. Mir and his brother were helping the module with the car."

At 6.52pm on Monday at Netaji Subhash Marg, a slow-moving i20 – which had been sold multiple times, retrofitted with a CNG tank, and had a registration number HR26CE7674 – blew up at a traffic signal, close to the Lal Quila metro station. The ensuing blaze charred at least 10 people and injured 21.

After a manhunt spanning four states, investigators pinned the crime on an extremist module busted in Faridabad alleg-ely linked to terror outfit. Jaish-e-Mohammad (JeM) and a group of individuals with links to Al Falah University in Haryana. Investigators say they successfully linked JeM posters appearing in Nowgam in Kashmir on October 18, the arrests of three doctors – Adeel Rather from Saharanpur, Muzammil Shakeel Ganaie from Faridabad, and Shaheen Shahid from Lucknow – the recovery of nearly 2,900kg of ammonium nitrate and other explosive material and firearms in Faridabad this week, and the evening blast in Delhi. Police have also arrested Shaheen Shahid's brother, Parvez Saeed Ansari, Irfan Ahmad Waghay, a maulvi from Shopian, and Mewat resident Hafeez Mohammad Ishtiyag, an imam at the Al-Falah Mosque from whose house explosives were recovered.
