Chirawa. A prominent public gathering was held in the town at the Somra Marriage Garden. The keynote speaker was Arun Kumar Jain, the All-India Co-Pracharak Pramukh (Joint Chief Propagator) of the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS). The introductory remarks for the program were delivered by Ashok Singh Shekhawat, the RSS Vibhag Sangh Chalak (Divisional Chief). Keynote speaker Arun Kumar Jain stated that, as the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh completes 100 years of its existence, the Sangh's volunteers—working in collaboration with society—must implement the 'Five Transformations' in every household to elevate this nation to the pinnacle of glory. These five themes are:

environmental conservation, family enlightenment (Kutumb Prabodhan), social harmony, the awakening of the 'Self' (Swadeshi spirit), and the fulfillment of civic duties—all to be achieved with the active cooperation of society. He recalled that students from countries across the globe once flocked to India in pursuit of knowledge, noting that the land was home to magnificent universities such as Nalanda and Takshashila. India, he emphasized, was a land abundant in wealth and grain, and stood supreme in the realms of knowledge and science. The gathering concluded with the singing of the National Anthem, and a vote of thanks was extended to all the distinguished guests and women (Matrushakti) who had graced the occasion with their presence.

Jhunjhunu. Seventy-six meritorious individuals from the Brahmin community were honored during the 'Pratibha Samman Samaroh' (Talent Recognition Ceremony) organized by the Vipra Foundation at the 'Khana Khazana' Auditorium, located at Piru Singh Circle. The Chief Guest, BJP State Vice President Mukesh Dadhich, stated that the Brahmin community is one that moves forward by taking all sections and communities of society along with it. He emphasized that there is no dearth of talent within the Brahmin community; rather, these talents should be provided with opportunities that align with their specific aptitude and interests. Through this recognition ceremony, the Vipra Foundation aims to encourage the talented students of the community, boost their morale, and foster a spirit of healthy competition and awareness within the field of education. The program's Special Guest of Honor was the Chief District Education Officer, Ashok Sharma, who remarked that such recognition ceremonies organized by the community serve to enhance both the competitive spirit and self-confidence of students. The event was presided over by the Vipra Foundation's District President, Kamalkant Sharma. Mr. Sharma affirmed that the Vipra Foundation remains steadfastly dedicated to the upliftment and honor of the Brahmin community. The dignitaries sharing the dais included Rajendra Joshi, Dr. Asha Sharma, Rakesh Sahal, and Ramniwas Dadhich. Program Convener Umashankar Mahmiya delivered the introductory address and highlighted the various activities undertaken by the organization. District Secretary Vikas Purohit proposed the vote of thanks, while the proceedings were anchored by Satyanarayan Sharma.

Initiative by Development Officer Dishi Sharma; Roadmap for Development Prepared in Every Panchayat

DEEPAKUR CHOUHAN

KEKRI | Under the Rajasthan Government's "Chief Minister Developed Village Campaign", Gram Sabhas were successfully conducted today across all 22 Gram Panchayats of Panchayat Samiti Kekri. The campaign is being implemented in line with the vision of "Developed Rajasthan @ 2047", with the support of the Rajasthan Institute for Transformation and Innovation (RITI), aiming to prepare a comprehensive development master plan from village to district level.

During the Gram Sabhas, villagers were informed in detail about the campaign, and committees formed at the Gram Panchayat level held in-depth discussions on basic data across various sectors. Keeping sustainable development in focus, deliberations were held to prepare master plans for short-term (2030), medium-term (2035), and long-term (2047) goals.

The data collected by Panchayat-level committees was reviewed and approved by the Gram Sabha before being submitted through the Chief Minister Developed Village Campaign App. Development Officer Dishi Sharma stated that, from the Panchayat Samiti level, nodal officers were appointed for each Gram Panchayat to ensure the smooth and effective conduct of the Gram Sabhas.

The meetings witnessed active participation from Gram Panchayat heads, nodal officers (Village Development Officers), Patwaris, Agriculture Supervisors, ANMs, Anganwadi workers, ASHA Sahyoginis, Rajeevika workers, ration dealers, livestock assistants, along with other village-level staff and public representatives in large numbers.

Shivraj Singh Chouhan named observer, BJP starts process to form Bihar govt

New Delhi, Agency: With Nitish Kumar tipped to quit as Bihar chief minister on Apr 14 after chairing his last cabinet meeting, the process for the first BJP-led govt to take over in Bihar kicked in on Sunday as Union minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan was named the party's central observer for election of the leader of its Bihar legislature party. There are indications that Samrat Choudhary is the frontrunner for the post of next chief minister. Chouhan said he will be in Patna on Apr 14 as BJP lawmakers elect their leader, who will then be chosen as NDA legislature party leader to succeed Nitish. Sources said that the oath-taking ceremony, likely on Apr 15, may be a simple affair, involving a few members. Nitish's son Nishant is being seen as JDU's choice for deputy CM as the party looks to preserve its founder's political legacy and enthrone its cadres.

Tamil Nadu polls: Vijay rejects 'four-cornered' contest, says fight is between TVK and DMK

New Delhi, Agency: TVK chief Vijay on Sunday dismissed claims of a four-cornered contest in the Tamil Nadu assembly elections, asserting that the real battle is between his party and the ruling DMK, while outlining a governance model centred on technology and service delivery, PTI reported.

Addressing a rally, Vijay said, "It is not 4-cornered or 40-cornered fight. There are only two sides here: One is TVK, the other is DMK. Do you want an anti-people Stalin government, or Vijay, who loves people? That's all this election is."

The actor-politician also undertook a bicycle ride at the venue as part of his outreach campaign. A similar exercise earlier in Karaikudi had turned chaotic, but arrangements in Kanyakumari ensured better crowd management.

Vijay unveiled a "21st-century good governance" vision, proposing India's first Ministry of Artificial Intelligence, along with plans for an AI City and a dedicated AI University, stating the sector could contribute USD 1.7 trillion to India by 2035.

Many of you will be arrested

Kolkata, Agency: Bengal chief minister Mamata Banerjee warned of "operations" starting Sunday night to arrest Trinamool workers ahead of assembly polls less than a fortnight away, urging them to be careful under an administration now under the EC.

Mamata vowed to resist BJP's attempt "to break Bengal through delimitation" that is slated to start following the Census this year. BJP, she said, is trying to "harass and intimidate"

Bengal's voters, including her, because it "knows it will lose the elections".

"Many will be detained and arrested before the polls (as part of an election strategy).

These operations will start (Sunday) tonight. Do not be intimidated... Remember, everything is under EC during this election - nothing is in our hands.

Be vigilant for another 15-21 days; then we will see, we will fight, and we will win again... They (BJP) know they will lose the election.
