SBS Nagar SDMs told to keep eye on illegal mining

NAWANSHAHR: Shaheed Bhagat Singh Nagar deputy commission (DC) Ankurjeet Singh on Friday directed the sub-divisional magistrates (SDMs) to constitute committees to keep tabs on illegal mining. In a meeting of district-level monitoring committee, the DC said these panels must regularly visit mining-prone zones to ensure better surveillance. Taking stock of suitable land for mining, Singh directed the officials concerned to initiate the process to issue 'no objection certificates'.

Jalandhar gets new GPS for mining sites

JALANDHAR: For accurate demarcation of mining sites, the district administration has procured a new Differential Global Positioning System. DC Himanshu Aggarwal also took stock of the ongoing projects, upgrade of de-addiction & rehabilitation centre, construction of Dhogri road, etc.

Amritsar university to establish Chair in Sikh studies: VC

AMRITSAR: Guru Nanak Dev (GND)University is strengthening its global footprint with a series of academic collaborations and initiatives aimed at promoting research on Guru Nanak's teachings and advancing higher education.

Vice-chancellor prof Karamjeet Singh, following a recent international tour, announced that the university is set to establish a Chair of Guru Nanak Dev Sikh Studies on the campus, supported by an endowment exceeding ₹3 crore funded primarily by Punjabi NRIs. The Chair will focus on research related to the spiritual and philosophical teachings of Guru Nanak Dev.

During his visit to Uzbekistan, Singh signed a memorandum of understanding with Samarkand State University to foster academic and cultural collaborations commemorating Guru Nanak Dev. In the United States, the plan for the Sikh Studies Chair took shape alongside scholarship programmes for students. In Canada, GNDU engaged with leading universities in British Columbia to explore joint research, faculty exchanges and innovative academic programmes. "This visit has marked a significant step toward positioning GNDU as a global leader in integrated and future-ready education," Singh said, highlighting the university's 'student-first' approach and focus on inclusive academic innovation. Addressing employment challenges faced by Indian graduates, the VC emphasised GNDU's initiatives to equip students with entrepreneurial skills. He said that while approximately 30 lakh students graduate annually in India, only 10 lakh secure jobs. To bridge this gap, GNDU is launching entrepreneurship courses and training programmes to help students create their own ventures.

The university has also introduced forward-looking programmes in artificial intelligence, robotics, environmental science, design, journalism and business analytics to prepare students for emerging fields, the VC said.

EASY JAMABANDI PORTAL WILL END CORRUPTION: ACS

HT Correspondent
letterschd@hindustantimes.com

CHANDIGARH: Additional chief secretary Anurag Verma, who is incharge of the Punjab revenue department, said on Friday that the Easy Jamabandi portal has been launched to weed out corruption. The portal, which provides five key services: Jamabandi via WhatsApp, online intkal (mutation), rapat entry, fard badar (correction of land records) and subscription for land record protection, was launched by Punjab CM Bhagwant Mann and AAP supremo Arvind Kejriwal on Thursday.

At a press conference, Verma said for the past many years, patwaris had been ruling the roost and seeking bribes to provide revenue documents to property owners. "But now, with the system online, patwaris are left with no option but to issue these documents in a time-bound manner. Immediately after a complaint is lodged on the portal, the DC gets a notice and he is duty-bound to dispose of it."

Revenue minister Hardeep Singh Mundian said the AAP is acting tough against corrupt practices.

India, Canada agree to share intel on terrorism

Recently, Canada and India have taken initial steps toward resuming warmer diplomatic relations

letters@hindustantimes.com

NEW DELHI/OTTAWA: The governments of Canada and India are set to establish a new structure to share information about cross-border crimes, their latest step toward rebuilding ties nearly two years after Canadian officials accused India of orchestrating the murder of a Sikh activist near Vancouver.

The new information-sharing arrangement, which includes law enforcement agencies from both countries, will allow them to swap intelligence on transnational crime and syndicates, terrorism and extremist activities, according to officials who asked not to be identified because the discussions are still private. For Canada, this also includes an emphasis on investigating extra-judicial killings.

The India-Canada ties were strained when then PM Justin Trudeau blamed India for separatist leader Hardeep Singh Nijjar's murder.

The officials said the details of the accord are still being worked on, and it's not yet known if the agreement will be publicly announced at the Group of Seven summit, where Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Prime Minister Mark Carney are scheduled to meet.

As of Friday, Modi was still expected to make the trip to Canada despite the Air India plane crash on Thursday that killed all but one of the 242 people aboard and the conflict in the Middle East after Israel launched strikes on Iran. But Modi's plans could still change.

"The forthcoming meeting between the two leaders on the sidelines of the G-7 summit will offer an important opportunity to exchange views on bilateral and global issues," Randhir Jaiswal, a spokesman for India's Ministry of External Affairs, said Thursday in New Delhi.

Relations between the two countries have been rocky since 2023, when then-Prime Minister Justin Trudeau publicly accused India of killing a Sikh separatist leader, Hardeep Singh Nijjar, outside a temple in Surrey, British Columbia. The Indian government denied involvement, calling the allegations absurd, and has blamed Canada for harboring Sikh separatist groups.

Canadian police have also accused the Indian government of homicides and extortion of Sikh Canadians.

Both India and Canada expelled each other's diplomats, cut down on visa approvals and downgraded their diplomatic relationship. Despite that, the security establishments of both nations have remained in touch and continued to exchange information, Bloomberg News has previously reported.

Recently, Canada and India took initial steps toward resuming warmer diplomatic ties. Carney invited Modi to the G-7 meeting, another signal that he's carving a new path for Canadian foreign policy and trying to mend ties.

Kurukshetra to host state-level yoga event

CHANDIGARH: To make the 11th International Yoga Day a "historic event", several programmes will be organised across all 22 districts in Haryana for which preparations are underway, chief minister Nayab Singh Saini said on Friday. This year's theme is 'Yoga for One Earth, One Health'.

This year's state-level event will be held at Brahma Sarovar in Kurukshetra, the very site from where Lord Krishna delivered the message of "karma" to the world, he said. PTI

{ GURUGRAM } POLICE ARREST ALL HIRED MEN

Man hires 38 bouncers to 'protect' from neighbour

Debashish Karmakar
letters@hindustantimes.com

GURUGRAM: In a bizarre escalation of a neighbourhood feud in Gurugram's upscale DLF Phase I, a 40-year-old businessman hired 38 bouncers as private muscle for "protection" from his neighbour — only for all of them to be arrested within hours of deployment on Friday.

Police said the businessman, Sangam Mohan, had been locked in a bitter dispute with his 27-year-old neighbour Purushottam Rawat over financial matters, which had recently turned violent.

After allegedly facing multiple assaults by Rawat and his associates, Mohan decided to hire bouncers from a firm for "security" at his home — a move that rapidly drew police attention.

The fallout stems from what police described as a souring friendship between Mohan and Rawat, who became acquainted around six months ago.

Their relationship deteriorated over a financial dispute, culminating in multiple violent run-ins over the past several weeks.

On June 6, Rawat and up to 20 hired bouncers allegedly attacked Mohan at his rented accommodation in DLF Phase 2 and then stormed his DLF Phase 1 residence to threaten his wife. Just days later, on Sunday, they allegedly returned with 8-10 more armed men to assault Mohan and his caretaker.

Police said Mohan and his wife had since confined themselves to their home in DLF Phase 1 out of fear — until another attack on Monday prompted them to temporarily leave the city.

The final spark came on Wednesday around 7.30pm, when Rawat and his men reportedly rammed the gate of Mohan's Phase I house using a Mahindra Thar. Anticipating further violence, Mohan allegedly hired 38 bouncers for five days by paying them a total of ₹1.9 lakh to guard his home and "settle scores."

By 9pm, neighbours called the police after spotting the large group unidentified men loitering outside the residence. A police team arrived and arrested all 38 bouncers on charges under the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita. They were granted bail the following day.

"Such actions can't be justified under the guise of self-defence," said Inspector Rajesh Bagri, SHO of DLF Phase 1 police station. "We're investigating both sides and trying to arrest Rawat to get to the bottom of the conflict."

"Attempts are underway to arrest Rawat, after which the exact reason for their enmity will be known. The 38 bouncers were granted bail at the police station," he said.

Police have also registered a first information report (FIR) against Rawat for assault, rioting, trespass, and intimidation based on Mohan's complaint and CCTV footage.

2 DEAD, 3 HURT IN GGM ACCIDENTS

GURUGRAM: A man travelling in an autorickshaw and another riding a motorcycle died after allegedly being hit by speeding cars on MG Road and Sohna Road, police said on Friday.

They said the first incident took place near the Westin Hotel at 9.50am on Thursday, when an autorickshaw carrying two passengers was going to Kherki Daula from the Iffco Chowk metro station.

Gurugram police public relations officer Sandeep Kumar identified the deceased as 39-year-old Manoj Kumar Kushwaha, who hailed from Prayagraj in Uttar Pradesh. He lived with his family in Shahdara, Delhi. In the second accident, 35-year-old Sheikh Raboil Islam died after a speeding car hit his motorcycle on the Sohna elevated road near Ghamroj toll plaza at 3.40pm on Wednesday.

He breathed his last in a Faridabad hospital on Thursday. Separate FIRs were registered at DLF's Sector 29 and Bhondsi police stations. HTC

Ferozepur to Nanded direct train flagged off

HT Correspondent
letterschd@hindustantimes.com

FEROZEPUR: A long-awaited demand of residents of Ferozepur has been fulfilled with the launch of a direct train service to Nanded in Maharashtra, connecting the region with the revered Hazur Sahib Gurdwara.

The new Ferozepur-Nanded Express (Train No 14622) was flagged off on Saturday by Rana Gurmeet Singh Sodhi, BJP national executive member.

Sodhi called the train service a "gift from Prime Minister Narendra Modi to the Sikh community" and emphasised the PM's unwavering commitment to Punjab's development.

He also highlighted that the new train would cater to not just pilgrims heading to Hazur Sahib, but also those traveling to Shirdi Sai Baba and Shani Shingnapur.

The Ferozepur-Nanded Express will operate every Friday, departing from Ferozepur at 1.25pm and reaching Nanded Hazur Sahib on Sunday at 3.30am. The train is expected to benefit numerous devotees, particularly from the Sikh community, by providing direct access to one of the holiest shrines in India.

Rana Sodhi shared that he had personally raised the request for the service with Union railways minister Ashwini Vaishnaw, who responded positively by approving the new train route. Sodhi reaffirmed that the border district of Ferozepur is receiving focused attention from the Modi government, with further developmental initiatives in the pipeline.

One of the first passengers on the newly launched train, Satbir Singh Barar from Nurpur Sethan, said, "This is a truly special gift for the Sikh community. As soon as I heard about the train, I made plans with my wife to visit Hazur Sahib."
