New Romania PM named

Romanian President Nicusor Dan on Sunday nominated Adrian Vesteas as PM after his previous choice, Eugen Tomac, withdrew following a failure to secure political support. Vesteas, 53, a former mayor and Development Minister, must win parliamentary approval to form a government. Romania has faced political uncertainty since a no-confidence vote ousted Prime Minister Ilie Bolojan in May. Dan said Vesteas's administrative experience made him well suited for the role.

Warehouse fire continues

Authorities in Northern California urged residents sensitive to smoke to stay indoors as firefighters battled a massive warehouse blaze for a third day on Saturday. Air quality in Tracy, where the Medline medical equipment warehouse has burned since Thursday, remained in the unhealthy range. Fire Chief Randall Bradley said smoke was expected to persist for several more days as crews worked to extinguish the fire. Investigators are probing the cause.

2 Rio copters crash, 6 dead

At least six people died on Sunday after two helicopters collided midair in western Rio de Janeiro, Brazilian firefighters said. "Reports indicate the helicopters collided in mid-air and crashed into the parking lot of an electric car dealership, igniting a fire that engulfed at least 20 vehicles," a statement said. All six crew members were confirmed dead in the accident in the western suburb of Recreio dos Bandeirantes. Images showed a thick plume of black smoke rising from the car dealership, where vehicles were on fire.

UK intercepts Russian shadow fleet oil tanker

London: Armed British forces boarded and detained a sanctioned tanker on Sunday suspected of being part of Russia's "shadow fleet" used to ship oil in breach of sanctions imposed over the Ukraine war, Prime Minister Keir Starmer said. Royal Marine commandos rappelled from helicopters onto the vessel, Smyrtos, in the English Channel in what the defence ministry dubbed the first UK-led operation of its kind. The tanker, sailing under a Cameroon flag, left the Russian Baltic port of Ust-Luga on June 5 bound for Port Said, Egypt. It will be held off England's south for a probe. "This operation delivers yet another blow to Russia," Starmer said. —AP

CEASEFIRE VIOLATION | Israeli military says the attack follows drone strikes by Hezbollah

Israel hits Beirut suburbs, 3 killed

Beirut: Israel struck targets in Beirut's southern suburbs on Sunday, killing at least three people.

The office of Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said the military had carried out strikes in Dahiyeh against Hezbollah targets. The Israeli military claimed that Hezbollah had launched three projectiles towards northern Israel, dubbing the action a ceasefire violation. Lebanon's civil defence agency said three bodies were recovered from the rubble and six people were injured.

The Israeli Broadcasting Authority reported two war-planes fired four guided missiles at targets in southern Beirut.

Earlier on Sunday, Israel issued displacement orders for 29 locations in southern Lebanon, including areas in Nabatieh and Sidon, directing residents to move north of the Zaharani River. —Agencies

IRGC warns ships against strait transit

IRGC Navy warned ships near the Strait of Hormuz against transiting the waterway, as per an audio recording of a public maritime radio channel. The recording, provided to Xinhua by a crew member aboard a vessel, captured the IRGC Navy telling ships in the Persian Gulf and Gulf of Oman that the strait had been "completely closed" and any movement through it would be dealt with "decisively". "For the sake of your health and safety, absolutely refrain from any movement in the Strait of Hormuz until further notice," the message said.

NBA win sparks NY unrest, teen shot at Celebrations of the New York Knicks' first NBA title in over 50 years turned violent in Manhattan early on Sunday, leaving a teenager injured, dozens arrested and several vehicles damaged.

The Knicks defeated the San Antonio Spurs 94-90 in Game Five in Texas to seal the championship, prompting thousands of fans to flood New York streets. Despite appeals for calm from Knicks owner James Dolan, disorder erupted in Midtown Manhattan as crowds leaving bars and watch parties clashed with police. New York Police Dept said a boy, 17, was shot in the foot near Times Square at 2am. No fatalities were reported.

Police said five school buses used to transport FIFA World Cup fans were torched or van-63 people were arrested and 10 police officers injured as celebrations of the New York Knicks' first NBA championship in more than 50 years descended into violence across Manhattan.

dalised, while patrol vehicles were damaged by people wielding bats and jumping on them. Four slashings and stabbings, destruction of private property, fireworks in crowded areas and multiple fights were also reported.

Sixty-three people were held for assaulting a cop, possessing a weapon, criminal mischief, bad conduct and resisting arrest. Ten cops were hurt. Officials said crowds became destructive, forcing a large police deployment to disperse revellers. —Agencies

Proposal to cap Switzerland population at 10mn rejected

Geneva: Switzerland has rejected a referendum proposal to cap its population at 10 million, as per preliminary results released on Sunday.

National broadcaster SRF projected 55% of voters opposed the measure, while 45% supported it. The proposal, backed by the right-wing Swiss People's Party, sought a constitutional amendment requiring the population to remain below 10 million by 2050. Supporters argued that rapid population growth was straining housing, infrastructure, social programmes and natural resources. Opponents warned the measure could harm Switzerland's labour market and its relationship with the EU, the country's largest trading partner.

If approved, the proposal could have led to tighter curbs on asylum, family reunification and residency permits, and potentially hit pacts on the free movement of people with the EU. The federal govt and parliament opposed the proposal. Switzerland's population stood at 9.1mn at the end of 2024. —AP

Trump turns 80, celebrates with UFC cage fight on WH lawn

Washington: US President Donald Trump turned 80 on Sunday and was set to celebrate with one of the more surreal spectacles in sport and even in Washington: cage fight on the White House lawn.

Against the backdrop of the Iran war broadly unpopular with Americans, as it has pushed the inflation to its highest level since April 2023, the White House, long known as the people's house and a symbol of American democracy, opened its backyard on Sunday night to stage a UFC card on the South Lawn.

More than $60 million and tens of thousands of hours of labour have been poured into building the arena, according to a court filing from the National Park Service, which oversees the South Lawn. UFC is staging seven fights featuring only male fighters under the Freedom 250 banner to celebrate Trump's 80th birthday and the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The fight card, headlined by two title fights on Paramount+, was scheduled to start at 8 pm Eastern.

It is the culmination of the UFC CEO Dana White and Trump relationship that has yielded personal, political and financial dividends for both parties over the past 25 years. White's first card as UFC president came in 2001 at an event held at Trump Taj Mahal. —AP

MASS ANTI-G7 STIR IN GENEVA

Geneva: Thousands of demonstrators gathered in Geneva on Sunday to protest against the G7 group of rich nations ahead of a summit in nearby Evian-les-Bains, France, where US President Trump and others are due to meet. Environmentalists, feminists, pro-Palestinian activists, media freedom advocates and anti-imperialist groups joined a march in the Swiss city. Swiss and French authorities deployed thousands of police and imposed tight security steps, road closures, curbs on unauthorised gatherings. —AP
