youth and citizens about the importance of voting, encourage first-time voters, and strengthen democratic participation. The event was graced by the presence of several dignitaries, including Dr. Gaurav Kumar Singh, IAS, Collector, Raipur; P.S. Dhruv, Joint Chief Electoral Officer; Yashwant Kumar, IAS, Chief Electoral Officer, Chhattisgarh; Vishwadeep, IAS, Municipal Commissioner, Raipur; and Kumar Biswajit Ranjan, IAS, Chief Executive Officer, District Panchayat, Raipur. During the programme, first-time and new voters were felicitated. Dr. Gaurav Kumar Singh administered the Voters' Pledge to the youth and urged them to become aware, fearless, and ethical voters committed to democratic values. MY Bharat volunteers and youth club members actively participated in the padyatra. Innovative engagement activities such as voter awareness campaigns, selfie vote stands, and the MY Bharat flag drive were organised to creatively motivate young citizens towards informed voting. Addressing the gathering, Arpit Tiwari, Deputy Director, MY Bharat, Raipur, stated that National Voters' Day is not merely a formal observance but a celebration of collective responsibility towards democracy. He emphasised that a strong and responsible nation is built when youth participate consciously in the electoral process. He called upon young citizens to take the message of "MY Bharat - My Vote" to every corner of society and to register on the MY Bharat Portal to actively engage in nation-building initiatives. Ms. Sunita Chansoria, Durga College, was also present on the occasion. At the conclusion of the programme, MY Bharat, Raipur, expressed gratitude to all youth organisations, educational institutions, volunteer groups, and citizens for their participation, expressing confidence that such initiatives will continue to energise democratic consciousness and make National Voters' Day-2026 a meaningful, inspiring, and memorable event.
