Rope found hanging from tree, body lying below

Malda, Agency: The body of a young man was recovered on Monday morning in Enayatpur Nawada village, under the Manikchak police station area of the district. A rope was found hanging from a nearby tree, and the young man's body was found beneath it. The deceased has been identified as 32-year-old Amit Choudhary, a resident of Kaggari, under the Englishbazar police station area.

According to police and local sources, Amit was married three years ago to Shyamali Choudhary, also a resident of Enayatpur Nawada, Manikchak. The couple has a one-year-old son. A few days ago, Amit had visited his in-laws' house with his wife, where they participated in a Mansa Geet program together on Sunday night. A black Scorpio vehicle (registration number JK 14A-7380) was signalled to stop by the naka team at Showa Chowk. However, on seeing the presence of police, the driver attempted to flee and managed to escape.

On inspection, the vehicle was found loaded with khair wood logs weighing approximately 5-6 quintals which were being illegally transported for commercial purposes.

The vehicle along with the seized khair wood has been taken into police custody. A report has been filed at Police Station Gharota and the seized vehicle and confiscated material have been handed over to the Forest Department for further action under the relevant provisions of the Forest Act.

Amit's body was found under a tree near his in-laws' house on Monday morning. A rope was seen hanging from a branch of the tree.

The deceased's family alleges that Amit did not commit suicide, but that his in-laws beat him to death by strangulating him. Meanwhile, the in-laws have completely denied this allegation.

Wife Shyamali Chaudhary says that on Sunday night, we both went to listen to music together. I

Bear attacks farmers in Bhatwadi area, creates panic

Uttarkashi, Agency: Wild animals are terrorizing the Taknaur Valley of Bhatwadi development block. Bears are carrying out deadly attacks on villagers while they are farming. They are also damaging farmers' crops.

On Monday, under the leadership of Forest Inspector Gaurav Kumar, the Forest Department team increased patrols in the area and raised awareness about wildlife. Forest Beat Officers Attar Singh Gusai, Gautam Singh Negi, Shourveer Singh, and other employees of the Taknaur Range Bhatwadi reached the spot and raised awareness.

They advised people to move away from the area if they see a bear, gather nearby to prevent the bear from attacking, and inform the Forest Department team. They appealed to the villagers not to go out alone for farming.

It's worth noting that the Taknaur region's primary occupation is horticulture and farming. Apples from the Harsil Valley are renowned in markets across the country. In the lower region, crops like potatoes, wheat, soybeans, amaranth, and kidney beans are cultivated in abundance. However, this time, farmers say that while potatoes are selling for a pittance, bears are now preying on soybeans and kidney beans. Devendra Panwar, a farmer from Raithal village, reported that bears have destroyed five or six of his own soybean fields, while other villagers have also suffered losses. The fear of bears is so severe that people are afraid to even venture into their fields.

Former village head Manoj Rana stated that he is also speaking with senior forest department officials regarding this matter. This ensures security for people during farming season, and the Forest Department continues to patrol the region. The people of our border areas are largely dependent on agriculture. The government should formulate a special policy for farmers so that their morale is not weakened and they are not forced to migrate, disillusioned with their farming.

Supreme Court refuses to issue notice to Rakesh Kishore, who threw a shoe at CJI's court

New Delhi, Agency: The Supreme Court has refused to issue a contempt notice to Rakesh Kishore, the lawyer accused of throwing a shoe in Chief Justice BR Gavai's courtroom. The bench headed by Justice Surya Kant said that issuing a contempt notice would be giving unnecessary attention to the matter. It would be better to let the controversy die down on its own.

The bench noted that since the contempt occurred directly in the court, the judge concerned, i.e., the Chief Justice, had the authority to take action, but he chose not to take any action. However, the court said that guidelines would be issued to prevent such incidents. The court has sought suggestions from Solicitor General Tushar Mehta and Supreme Court Bar Association President Vikas Singh.

Supreme Court Bar Association President Vikas Singh had sought permission to initiate a contempt case against Rakesh Kishore.

According to the police, the contractor had opposed the illegal sale of liquor in the area, which escalated into a dispute and led to his murder. The police have sent the body for post-mortem and deployed four teams to search for the accused. According to the police, Charanjit, a resident of Siddharth Nagar, was a partner in a liquor shop in Kacha Camp Colony. Two brothers, Sachin and Monty, were selling liquor illegally in the colony, which Charanjit opposed.
