

peoples' will. People have chosen Congress and today's victory sends out a message that democracy wins in this country," he said.

The trends show that voters cutting across regions dominated by tribals, scheduled castes and farmers, swung overwhelmingly towards Congress. Most Congress candidates had either won or were leading by impressive margins.

In state capital Raipur — considered a BJP stronghold — it was a rout for the ruling party. Only senior minister Brijmohan Agrawal was leading by 15,000 votes.

Most-affected tribal Bastar region in the south and tribal areas in the north not only stood with Congress — as in the past — but also chose Congress challengers over sitting BJP legislators. Farmer-dominated constituencies also overwhelmingly favoured Congress, no doubt attracted by AICC chief Rahul Gandhi's promise of farm loan waiver within 10 days, cutting power bills by half and hike paddy MSP to Rs 2,500.
