leges spread across Uttar Pradesh, said officials associated

UPSESSB has now started the verification process for these posts and after doubly checking and ascertaining the exact count of vacant posts of teachers in these institutions, the board would then begin the recruitment process, said a senior official of UPSESSB.

The official said that the district inspector of schools (DIOSs) from across 75 districts of the state have sent information online on the dedicated portal regarding vacant posts of government-aided high schools and intermediate colleges till August 7. "After collating the information, the board has begun the task of verifying the information provided. "The importance of the move can be gauged from the fact that it is after a gap of three years that UPSESSB is gearing up to issue a recruitment advertisement for posts of teachers.
