Surat: Hasyamev Jayate, a non-government organization, has started a programme to ensure that at least 10,000 schoolchildren remain physically fit by teaching them laughter yoga and exercises in the city. The programme has been inspired by Fit India Movement of Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

A number of schools have joined the NGO's programme of laughter yoga to be held from the first week of September. RSM Poonawala Experimental School, Vidya Bharti School, Presidency School, Umrigar High School, Gyan Ganga Vidyalaya, DD Radadia School, DP Mangukia School, Nav Chetan Vidyalaya, Shishu Vihar School and some other schools have joined the programme. The laughter yoga will be held in the premises of different schools.

Kishor Jani principal of RSM Poonawala Experimental School, said, "Yoga will definitely benefit the students. It will help them concentrate better, give them inner strength and make their minds strong. I wish such programmes are conducted at least once a month."

Nidhi Pacchigar, principal of Vidya Bharti School, said, "Such programmes do rejuvenate students. Two years ago, we had a programme of laughter yoga for teachers and the results were excellent. We hope such things become a regular feature in students' curriculum."

Kamlesh Masalawala, founder member of Hasyamev Jayate, said, "We are concentrating on students from class V to IX this time. The habit of staying physically and mentally fit should start from them. We will teach them how to stay fit and keep smiling."
